Pia Copeland

AUTHOR · FOUNDER & PUBLISHER

Pia Copeland is an author, founder, and publisher whose work centers faith, resilience, purpose, leadership, and legacy. She is the Founder & Publisher of Golden Daisy Press™ and the author of the forthcoming memoir Rooted in Grace™. Through writing, leadership, and community building, Pia encourages women to honor where they have been while making room for who they are still becoming.

Writing with purpose.
Living with grace.
Building what endures.

PiaCopeland.com

hello@piacopeland.com

Author Biographies

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Pia Copeland is an author, founder, and publisher whose work centers faith, resilience, purpose, leadership, and legacy. She is the Founder & Publisher of Golden Daisy Press™ and the author of the forthcoming memoir Rooted in Grace™. Through writing, leadership, and community building, Pia encourages women to honor where they have been while making room for who they are still becoming.

MEDIUM BIOGRAPHY

Pia Copeland is an author, founder, publisher, and community builder whose work explores faith, resilience, purpose, leadership, personal growth, and legacy. She is the Founder & Publisher of Golden Daisy Press™, an independent publishing imprint created to develop meaningful stories and resources with depth, intention, and lasting value. Her forthcoming memoir, Rooted in Grace™, reflects on the experiences and turning points that shaped her life and the grace that carried her forward. Pia's broader leadership work includes women's empowerment, nonprofit service, mentorship, organizational development, and purpose-driven community building.

EXTENDED BIOGRAPHY

Pia Copeland is an author, founder, publisher, and purpose-driven leader whose work is rooted in faith, resilience, reflection, leadership, and legacy. Her writing draws from lived experience and explores the ways women grow through adversity, responsibility, relationships, change, and seasons of becoming.

Pia is the Founder & Publisher of Golden Daisy Press™, an independent publishing imprint established to bring thoughtful, meaningful books into the world. Her forthcoming memoir, Rooted in Grace™, is a personal reflection on the experiences, family relationships, choices, hardships, faith, and turning points that shaped her journey. Her developing body of work also includes Beyond the Gathering™ and A Brighter You™.

Beyond publishing, Pia has built organizations centered on women, families, education, wellness, leadership, and community impact. She brings a practical founder's perspective to conversations about vision, sustainability, service, purpose, and legacy.

Rooted in Grace™

A Memoir of Faith, Resilience, and Purpose

By Pia Copeland · Golden Daisy Press™

BOOK OVERVIEW

An intimate memoir about the roots that shaped Pia Copeland, the difficult and defining seasons she has lived through, and the grace that carried her forward. The book explores family, identity, choices, responsibility, faith, growth, and the ongoing work of becoming.

CURRENT STATUS

Manuscript complete. Submitted to the U.S. Copyright Office for copyright registration and moving into production. Publication details will be shared when confirmed.

FROM CHAPTER ONE: EVERY GEM BEGINS HIDDEN

Some of my earliest memories are stitched together with sunlight, sidewalks, and the sound of my own small footsteps. I did not realize it then, but those quiet walks to church were shaping me long before I understood what purpose even meant.

I loved the walk almost as much as the service itself. There was something sacred about the journey. The morning air felt cool against my skin. The trees swayed as if they were greeting me, and the neighborhood seemed to hush itself as I passed by.

Read the complete website excerpt

Explore the memoir

Speaking & Conversations

Topics for podcasts, panels, interviews, book clubs, and women’s events.

FAITH & RESILIENCE

Finding strength and meaning through difficult seasons.

WOMEN REBUILDING & BECOMING

Making room for a meaningful next chapter without erasing the past.

LEADERSHIP & LEGACY

Creating impact that extends beyond the founder.

PURPOSE-DRIVEN COMMUNITIES

Moving from vision and gathering to structure and sustainability.

WRITING FROM LIVED EXPERIENCE

Turning personal history into responsible, meaningful storytelling.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP & PUBLISHING

Building an independent publishing identity with intention.

WOMEN’S EMPOWERMENT

Helping women recognize their agency, voice, and capacity to grow.

Discuss an opportunity: hello@piacopeland.com

For Hosts & Editors

SUGGESTED INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

1. What inspired you to write Rooted in Grace™ at this stage of your life?

2. What does ‘becoming’ mean to you now?

3. How do you decide what belongs in a memoir and what remains private?

4. What led you to establish Golden Daisy Press™?

5. What have you learned about building communities that last?

6. How has faith influenced your understanding of resilience?

7. What would you say to a woman who feels her most meaningful chapter has already passed?

APPROVED ASSETS & CONTACT

Author materials and original portrait

Official author website

Publishing imprint

Media and speaking inquiries

Approved biographies, interview topics, portraits, and author artwork may be used for legitimate editorial and event promotion relating to Pia Copeland. Preserve the original photography and logo artwork. For additional permissions or materials, contact hello@piacopeland.com.